

John Farley

Born and raised St. Cloud, Minnesota. Family moved to Detroit where I attended high school and college (graduated with B.S. Social Sciences)- Eastern Michigan University.

Joined the U.S. Navy 1963 - 1965 active. Lucky break here as it was my entry to elementary computers (Data Processing then).

Married 1965 – 3 children, 1 grandson; Married Elizabeth Sears Farley 1990. Elizabeth works in the Rocklin area.

Started career at General Motors as a computer operator and programmer. Then worked as a systems analyst for a large bank in downtown Detroit (was still safe there then).

Moved to California in 1977 to work for Bank of America as a senior systems analyst and project manager. Eventually became a Vice President in charge of mortgage banking systems throughout main offices and regional processing centers.

Left Bank of America to become the VP/Manager of First Nationwide Bank (became CalFed, now Citibank) Mortgage Loan Servicing systems/applications.

Project Director of Y2K compliance efforts at Pac Bell Directory, CSAA and Ziff-Davis Events.

Became an independent contractor developing and working contracts at Wells Fargo, Charles Schwab and Bank of America.

Senior Project Manager (contractor) at SBC & AT&T responsible for Quality Assurance efforts for their Customer Care and Billing applications.

Moved to Lincoln Hills 2001 and continued to work at AT&T until 2006.

Finally retired in 2006.

Member of local Chamber of Commerce, Knights of Columbus, and Elks Club while living in the S.F. Bay area.
