

Bob Free

Born 10-16-1929 in Philadelphia PA

Graduated from The Pennsylvania State University in 1951 with a B.S. degree in Agronomy (soils and crops for the uninformed).

Worked in the Plant Food industry for four years before joining Chevron Chemical as a salesman in the Agricultural Chemical Division in York, Pennsylvania.

Moved to Fort Madison, Iowa in 1964 as Marketing Assistant in the Fertilizer Division. On to Cedar Rapids, Iowa in 1965 as District Sales Manager for four years. Then on to San Francisco in 1994 as Sales Training Manager for the Ortho Division. Then to Training Manager for Ortho Division. Then on to the Manager of Employee Development for Chevron Chemical Co.

Retired on 9-31-1985 and began a consulting business which I continued 'til we came to Lincoln Hills in 1999.

Met Sarah at Penn State in 1951, became engaged about a year later and married in 1952. First son Bob, Jr. works for PG&E as Senior Network Specialist and is located in Auburn. Second son David resides in Northridge and is managing partner Singer Lewak Greenbum & Goldstein an accounting firm. Married and has three sons, two are finished college and working (finally) eldest getting married next May, youngest at U of Colorado in Bolder. Youngest, Tim married three children and is Manager of Customer Relations for Jack-in-the-Box and lives in Stockton. His second child a Marine has been to Iraq and is expected to go to Afghanistan in the spring.

Hobbies over the years include: Stamp collecting, gardening, running, bridge, card and board games, square dancing, camping, traveling, volunteering.

Currently a member of the NEV, RV Group, three wine tasting groups, Chair of the Document Review Election Committee, and have served on the Nominating and Election Committee for three years.

